THURSDAY 30 JUNE 2016 - 6.30 for 7.00pm
Institute of Directors, 116 Pall Mall, London, SW1Y 5ED

We are delighted to welcome, James Bullard, President and CEO of the Federal Bank of St Louis, as our guest speaker at the Society's Annual Dinner. President Bullard participates in the Federal Open Market Committee (FOMC) and directs the activities of the Bank's head office in St. Louis and of its branches in Little Rock, Ark., Louisville, Ky., and Memphis, Tenn. An economist, Dr. Bullard joined the Fed in 1990. Since becoming president in 2008, Bullard has called for the FOMC to adopt state-contingent policy and to give greater consideration to headline inflation than core inflation when deciding monetary policy. In the wake of the financial crisis, he supported quantitative easing and warned about the possibility of the United States' falling into a Japanese-style deflationary trap. He has also argued that the U.S. output gap may not be as large as many estimates suggest.

The Dinner will be presided over by the SBE Vice President, Sir Alan Budd and the Society is very grateful to Standard Life Investments for sponsoring this event. We will also be presenting the annual 2016 Rybczynski Prize to the author of the best piece of business economics writing.

The Annual Dinner provides an excellent opportunity to catch up with old friends and make new contacts, and of course to entertain clients. Our venue is once again the elegant Nash Room in the Institute of Directors. To take advantage of our discount for early booking, or to reserve a table for ten, please complete and return the form below as soon as possible. The early booking rate will only be available until 1 June.
