THE UK & GLOBAL ECONOMIC OUTLOOK: MORE RISK LESS OPPORTUNITY?

To discuss the UK and global outlook and the risks around that outlook, we have an exceptional line-up of speakers at this year's SBE Annual Conference.

Ben Broadbent, Deputy Governor for Monetary Policy at the Bank of England, will talk about the prospects for the UK economy and monetary policy.

Sir Charles Bean, Professor of Economics at LSE and Former Deputy Governor at the Bank of England, will analyse secular stagnation and the decline in global interest rates.

Jan Hatzius, Global Chief Economist for Goldman Sachs, will discuss the US and global economic outlook.

Jonathan Anderson, President, Emerging Advisors Group, will talk about China's economic outlook.

Dame DeAnne Julius, Chair of Council, University College London and former Chairperson of Chatham House, will discuss the use of scenario analysis to explore geo-political risks.

The conference will be chaired by the BBC's Evan Davis.

Dr Ben Broadbent

Deputy Governor for Monetary Policy
Bank of England

Discussing:

The prospects for the UK economy and monetary policy

Prior to his appointment as Deputy Governor for Monetary Policy in 2014, Dr Ben Broadbent was an external member of the Monetary Policy Committee. In addition to his membership of the Monetary Policy Committee and Financial Policy Committee, he has specific responsibility within the Bank for Monetary Policy, including monetary analysis and notes. He was formerly an Economic Adviser at HM Treasury, and Assistant Professor of Economics at Columbia University from 1997-2000. For the decade prior to his appointment to the MPC, Dr Broadbent was Senior European Economist at Goldman Sachs, during which time he researched and wrote widely on the UK economy and monetary policy.

Sir Charles Bean

Professor of Economics, LSE
and former Deputy Governor, Bank of England

Discussing:

Secular stagnation and the decline in global interest rates

Sir Charles Bean is a Professor of Economics at the London School of Economics. From 2000 to 2014, he served at the Bank of England as Executive Director and Chief Economist, and then Deputy Governor for Monetary Policy, and was a member of the Monetary Policy and Financial Policy Committees. Before joining the Bank of England, he was a member of faculty at LSE and was Managing Editor of the Review of Economic Studies; he has also worked at HM Treasury. He was President of the Royal Economic Society from 2013 to 2015 and was knighted in 2014 for services to monetary policy and central banking. He holds a PhD from MIT.

Dr Jan Hatzius

Global Chief Economist,
Goldman Sachs

Discussing:

The US and global economic outlook

Dr Jan Hatzius is the Goldman Sachs' chief economist and head of Global Economics and Markets Research. He joined Goldman Sachs in the Frankfurt office in 1997 and transferred to New York in 1999. Jan was named managing director in 2004 and partner in 2008. Prior to joining Goldman Sachs, Jan was a research officer at the London School of Economics. He has won numerous forecasting prizes and is a two-time winner (2009 and 2011) of the Lawrence R. Klein Award by Blue Chip Economic Indicators, Inc. for the most accurate US economic forecast over the prior four years, a period including the global financial crisis. Jan is a member of the economic advisory panels of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York and the Congressional Budget Office.

Dr Jonathan Anderson

President, Emerging Advisors Group

Discussing:

China's economic outlook

Dr Jonathan Anderson is President of Emerging Advisors Group, a China-based emerging market macro consultancy that services the global fund management and financial industries. Prior to founding EM Advisors, Jonathan was the Global Emerging Market Economist at UBS Investment Bank; he has also worked at Goldman Sachs and the International Monetary Fund, where he served as Resident Representative in both China and Russia. Jonathan received his MA and PhD candidacy in economics at Harvard University, and speaks fluent Russian and Mandarin Chinese.

Dame DeAnne Julius

Chair of Council, University College London and former chairperson Chatham House

Discussing:

The use of scenario analysis to explore geo-political skills

Dame DeAnne Julius chairs the Council of University College London (UCL) and is the former chairman of Chatham House. She holds a Ph.D in economics from the University of California and was a founder member of the Monetary Policy Committee of the Bank of England. Her early career was at the World Bank and prior to joining the MPC, she held a number of positions in the private sector including Chief Economist at British Airways and Shell. She has since served on several corporate boards, including Jones Lang LaSalle (US), Roche (Switzerland), BP, Serco, Deloitte and Lloyds Bank.

Evan Davis

BBC

Evan Davis is a presenter of the BBC2 current affairs programme Newsnight, a role he began in September 2014. From April 2008 up to then he was a presenter of the Today programme on BBC Radio 4. He is also well-known as the presenter of the BBC2 business reality show Dragons Den and on Radio 4, he hosts a weekly business discussion programme, The Bottom Line. Prior to the Today programme he was the Economics Editor of the BBC, promoted to that role after working as an economics correspondent for BBC news and as economics editor of the Newsnight programme on BBC2 in the 1990s.
