

THE IMPACT OF BREXIT – WHAT HAVE WE LEARNED SO FAR

CHARLOTTE DENDY
PRINCIPAL ECONOMIST

THE TCA – THE BUSINESS VIEW

Zero tariffs and zero quotas for qualifying goods

Annexes to reduce TBTs

Continued access to some EU programmes

Grace period on agri-food and medicines in NI

Grace period on data

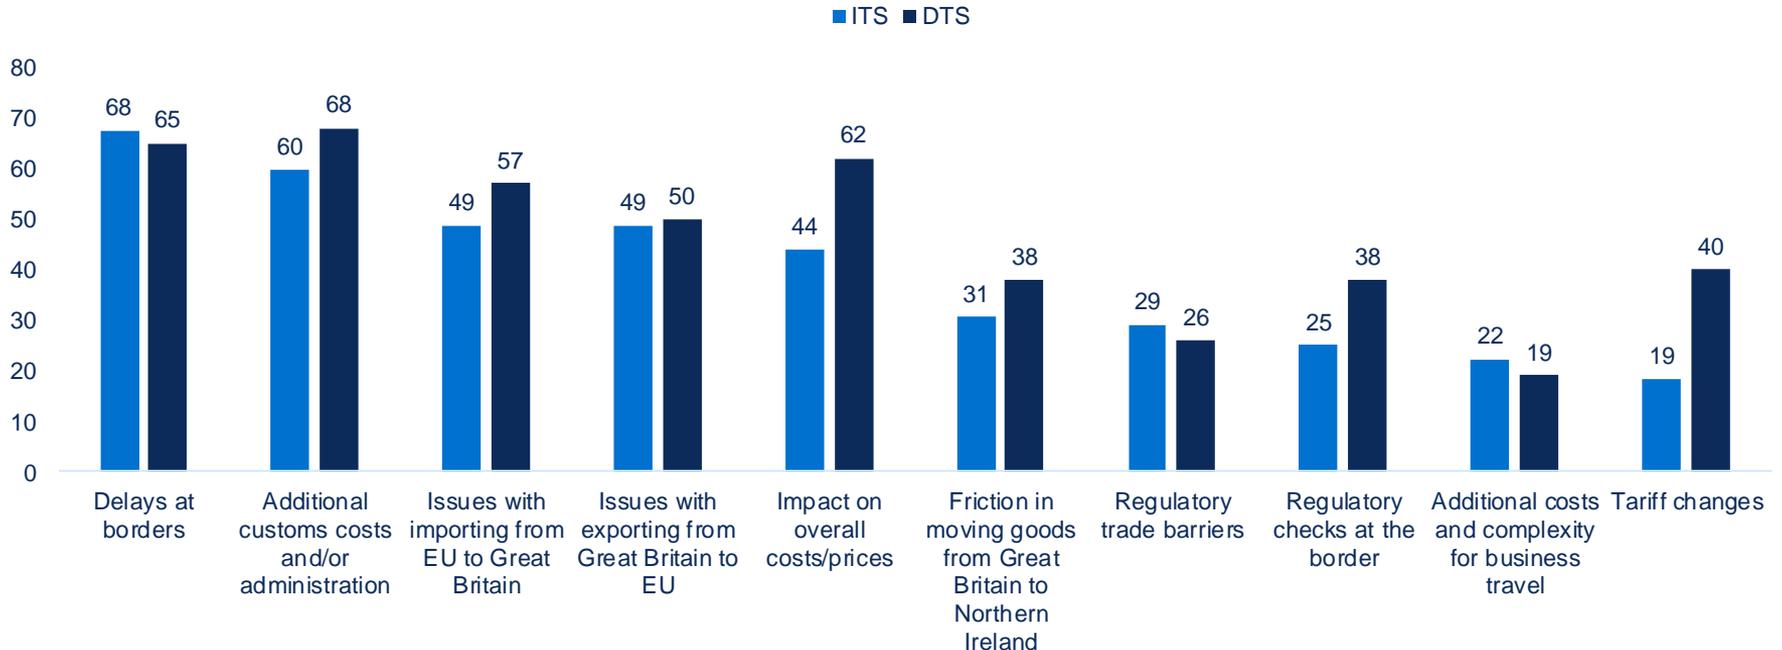

Brexit deal grants UK temporary data adequacy

Brexit deal secures U.K. access to European research funds
By Nicholas Wallace | Dec 28, 2020, 4:10 PM

WHAT IS CBI SURVEY DATA TELLING US?

ITS & DTS - Following the end of the transition period on 1st January 2021, is your business currently experiencing any of the following from the new UK-EU Trade & Cooperation Agreement? (% of respondents, top 10 issues)*

WE ARE SEEING A NUMBER OF CHALLENGES EMERGE FOR MEMBERS

Percy Pigs in Ireland hit by Brexit red tape as M&S warns of tariffs

Sweets are among retailer's products affected by 'rules of origin' regulations

▲ Percy Pig sweets are manufactured in Germany and brought to the UK before being re-exported to Ireland. Photograph: Alicia Carter/The Guardian

Brexit: Calais traffic slow as new border controls face first test

By Lucy Williamson
BBC News, Calais

Delays at borders

Additional customs costs and/or administration

Impact on overall costs/prices

Issues with importing and exporting between EU and GB

GB – NI border

Boris Johnson admits Brexit deal falls short for financial services

TOP BUSINESS PRIORITIES FOR TRADE WITH EU

1. The Northern Ireland Protocol

2. A bespoke veterinary agreement to reduce the burden of SPS checks

3. The future of business travel

The CBI calls for a UK-EU Veterinary Agreement to reduce the burden on agri-food trade